

OUR VISION

To free the oppressed, and to stand for human dignity, justice and reconciliation in Burma.

OUR MISSION

To bring help, hope and love to people of all faiths and ethnicities in Burma's war zones, to stand with the oppressed, and to support leaders and organizations committed to justice and service.

OUR OBJECTIVES

- ❖ To inspire and equip people in Burma to bring positive change through acts of love and service.
- ❖ To provide immediate medical assistance, shelter, food, clothing, educational materials and other humanitarian aid in the war zones and to improve logistics and medical evacuation.
- ❖ To develop the Information Network of Burma which documents, reports and disseminates stories of human rights violations to the world community and provides an early warning system of Burma Army attacks against ethnic people.
- ❖ To provide spiritual and emotional counseling for trauma victims, and to support programs for women and children.
- ❖ To train, equip and sustain humanitarian relief teams in the field.
- ❖ To work for reconciliation, build a civil society and unite all the people in Burma.
